Overland Limousine Service, both of Kansas City, have formed a strategic partnership to provide a new service, "The Executive Agent Program". Now, Executive Protection Professionals are available to accompany Overland Limousine's clients for the duration of their stay or even a single event. Thomas Dupriest, a fifteen-year veteran of the FBI and CMKA's current President and Chief Executive Officer, joined Mr. Kelley in founding the firm. Chad Clayton, Director of Protective Services, explained that CMKA's Executive Agents receive extensive and continuous training in order to provide discrete, client focused services to ensure the safety, health and property of our clients.
